

Week
"B"

Notes

Topic

- 5.5 acres in Washington Park

①

Designed
by professor
Takuma Tono

- Opened 1967

②

- Three elements: stone
③ Water and plants

- 5 subgardens: Strolling
④ Pond Garden, Natural
Garden, Sand and Stone
Garden, Flat Garden and Tea Garden

Rough Draft

tab → Portland's Japanese

Garden is 5.5 acres and located in washington Park.

It was designed by Tono professor Takuma ~~Tono~~.

The Japanese Garden was opened in 1967. the garden has three elements which include stone, water and plants. It also has five subgardens which recommend are all unique. I ~~reccommend~~ you visit this beautiful place!